FIGHTING IN CHILI.

Trouble Between Congress and the President Leads to Serious Outbreaks.

DEMAND BY THE LOWER CLASSES IG-NORED BY THE EXECUTIVE.

The Big Railway Strike in Scotland-England and the Vatican-The Irish Party Troubles-Emperor William and Bismarck-Greece's Financial Condition-

LONDON, Jan. 8.-Buenos Ayres cable ad cices to-day report the breaking out of a revolution in Chili. No particulars, however, olution in Chill. No particulars, however, have yet come to hand.

THE REPORT CONFIRMED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—Dispatches were received to day indicating outbreaks and troublesome times in the rather quiet and staid country of Chill. Mr. Jeffrey, of the firm of Flint & Co., was seen and said: "Yes, we have had several letters and and also some later dispatches which give accounts of the difficulty pretty fully. The whole trouble is between the President and the Congress. The people, through the Congress, want some people, through the Congress, want some laws made which will be concessions to the lower classes. The President refuses to call the Congress together and does not desire the laws made. I suppose the overbearing and tyrannical action of the President has ex-asperated the public and led to the rumors of change is down to 22 pence, which is the low-est it has been for years."

THE REPORT DISCREDITED. The Chilian legation discredits the report of a revolution in Chili.

The Irish Party Troubles.

Lodon, Jan. 8.—The Unionist papers are making a good deal of capital out of what they term Mr. O'Brien's surrender. They declare that Mr. Parnell is the only leader of the Irish people and that Mr. Gladstone will have to swallow his dislike of the hero of the O'Shea incident, or retire to private life. APPROVED BY GLADSTONE.

It is understood that Mr. Gladstone approves of the reported result of the conference of the Irish leaders at Boulogne-Sur-Mer. Mr. John Dillon, now in New York, has cabled his approval of the temporary retirement of Mr. Parnell. Mr. Gill will not talk further than to say that a peaceful settlement of the dispute may be looked for.

Mr. O'Brien is reported to have said: "I have nothing to add to the communications that have already been made to the news-that have already been made to the newspapers except that, in view of all there is at stake for unhappy Ireland, in the interests of the friendship and good will between the two people, I respectfully entreat our friends in a portion of the English press to exercise patience while we are discussing most difficult and delicate matters with our brother representatives of Ireland."

MR. GLADFIONE'S DENIAL.

MR. GLADFIONE'S DENIAL.

Mr. Gladstone denies having offered office to Mr. Parnell or having agreed to a merely temporary retirement of that gentleman from the leadership of the Irish National party.

The McCarthyttes and the other members of the National Liberal Club are reported to be satisfied with the reports from the con-PATCHING UP THE QUARREL.

being made to patch up the quarrel, both sides realizing the difficulty of moving the national train with an engine at each end. The probable result of the conference of the Irish leaders will be a renewal of the Parnell

Scotland's Big Railway Strike. GLASGOW, Jan. 8 .- Another day in the history of the great Scotch railroad strike has opened without any signs of definite improve ment in the situation being shown. The rail Mixed lot Ladies' Jewelry, including gold front and gold-plated lace pins, fobs and charms, etc., that were 50c, 75c and 95c;

Toad directors have repeatedly announced that the strike was practically over; that the strike was practicall statements were believed at first, but it now seems that the utterances of the railroad offiseems that the utterances of the railroad om-cials were not correct. In and about this neighborhood there are still about 6,000 men out and on strike and spite of the statements made by the com-anies' representatives, the freight traffic is not being improved. On the other hand, the strikers are continually receiving financial and moral support from the various trade unions, throughout Great Britain. Though the sums received by each striker are small and far from being sufficient to keep their families from suffering, the aid received enables them to keep up the fight against the railroad companies. The general public is longing for some kind of a settlement to be arrived at between the companies and their PUBLIC IRRITATION.

LONDON, Jan. S.—Public irritation over the dead lock in the Scotch Railway traffic is in-creasing. The Glasgow Presbytery has ap-pointed a strong committee to endeavor to

Baron Wissmann's Bad Luck. BERLIN, Jan. 8 .- Last Saturday's dispatch

Vienna, Jan. 8.—With the death of the Duke of Leuchtenberg disappears the only candidate for the Bulgarian throne that Prince Ferdinand had reason to fear, a candidate related to the imperial houses of Russia and Austria, and Ferdinand can now reign in SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 8.—Hebert L. Rand of Carthage, Ill., who was appointed United States Consul to the Caroline Islands, arrived here restering on his way there and found some letters and packages here for him from his brother, Rev. Frank Rand, who has been a missionary at the islands for some years. In it the Land was to the American public 'a jurist news of a booky vendetta which has been carried on between the natives of the island and the Spaniards. Two pitched battles have occurred, and in each the entire body of Spanish invaders have been utterly routed... One bombardment by a Spanish man-of-war took place, which demolished the town of Panape. Since the vendetta a war has commenced and over, 300 souls have been sacrificed. The Consul will make an effort to have an American ship-of-war assigned there to protect him during his residence there.

DUBLIN, Jan. 8.—The number of, letters offering relief, in response to the appeal issued by the Vicercy of Ireland and Chief Secretary Balfour, is so great that the promised first list could not be made up last night, though a large force of clerks in Mr. Balfour's Dublin office were at work getting them in order. The list will appear some time to-day, or to-morrow.

THE NURDER OF BRIDGET FLANNAGAN. THE MURDER OF BRIDGET FLANNAGAN.
DUBLIN, Jan. 8.—The police claim that they are in possession of facts tracing the murder of Bridget Flanagan, in County Clare last October, to certain organizers of the League in that county. The young woman was shot dead while in bed by parties who probably mistook the sleeping-room for that of her father, who occupied an evicted tenant's farm.

England and the Vatican.

LONDON, Jan. 8 .- Sir George Errington has made a statement strongly advocating the diplomatic recognition of the Holy See by the British Government. He says: "Italy and other European powers, Protestant as well as Catholics, think there is nothing derogatory in treating the Pope as a sovereign, and even Italy is of the opinion that it is better that the communications sure to be made to the Vatican should pass through a friendly government than through other channels, usually hostile to Italy."

GEN. BOOTH'S PROPOSED TOUR.
LONDON, Jan. S.—Gen. Scoth intends making a tour of the Continent in February.
While there he will endeavor to promote the scheme of social reform set forth in his book, "In Darkest England."

A Love Affair and a Duel.

PARIS, Jan. 8.-Aug. Franzen, a Swedish painter, who has achieved some reputation in water colors, has left Paris for America Franzen was the hero of a love affair with the daughter of a former leader of the Com-mune and fex-Minister to Sweden. A duel was the result, in which Franzen, who was ignorant of swordmanship, rushed upon his antagonist and wounded him severely but not fatally.

M. JULES FERRY EXPLAINS.

PARIS, Jan. 8.—In an interview yesterday
M. Jules Ferry said that while he did not intend to declare himself as in entire accord with the aggressive policy of the Chamber of Deputies, he would certainly support that policy. He said that while he was a protecttionist he objected to fixing minimum tariff rates too high. Although believing peace would be maintained he still thought that the military strength of France should be preserved intact.

Greece Crushed by Taxation. ATHENS, Jan. 8 .- The financial situation here is becoming serious and M. Delaaannis has doubts about being able to meet the interest on the immense indebtedness which, under M. Tricouples, swelled from 400,000,000 to 800,000,000 drachmae. The country is crushed by taxation and there is much grumbling among the peasantry. among the peasantry.

Henderson, are under arrest at the Fifth Dis-trict Police Station, charged with obtaining from here is confirmed by the official news that Emin Pasha is to be Governor of the Lake Region of the German South Africa. As pointed out in that dispatch Wissmann's attempted recall of Emin was prompted by a jealous fear that Emin would get the place Wissmann wanted. Emin got it and Wissmann, who, for the time has been in disfavor and tolerated only for past services, will himself, probably be recalled.

THE EMPEROR ABANDONS HIS TRIP.

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—The Frankfurter Zeitung today announces that the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Frederick Francis III. has offered Prince Bismarck the Presidency of the Ministry of the Grand Dukey of Mecklenburg-Schwerin. Prince Bismarck is said to have declined the Grand Dukey's kind offer. According to the story, Emperor William, upon hearing of the proposal, abandoned his proposed visit to Cannes.

As the lady was a customer at the establishment the order was of course honored and the negro left with his prize. After gorging themselves with the confection the youngsters decided that cigars were in order and obtained the cheroots from a Market street dealer by a similar scheme. When Rebman discovered the fraud he reported the matter to the police and Detectives Harrington and Waish of the Fifth District made the arrest. Warrants charging the prisoners with obtaining goods under false pretenses will be applied for this afternoon.

Why Frank Heckwolff Became Incensed and Raised a Row.

Frank Heckwolff is the general foreman in charge of the bottling department at the Anheuser-Busch Brewery. According to the testimony submitted in the First District Police Court to-day, he has been for some time on decidedly friendly terms with Jessie Wilson, who keeps a furnished-room house at 1872 Pine street. Recently the woman wrote him a caustic note, returning a picture which he had presented. Helkwolff went to the house hast night, forced his way into the parior and ruised a right royal disturbance, threatening the woman with violence and firing a shot from his revolver into the ceiling. Reports from Gen. Brooke state that Lieut.

E. W. Casey, Twenty-second Infantry, was killed to-day. There has been fighting and skirmishing on that part of the line for several days. Lieut. Casey was out with his scouts watching the hostile camp, and with one Cheyenne met two Indians, an Ogalialia and a Brule. The Ogalialia warned Lieut. Casey that the Brules were bad and would shoot. As Liet. Casey turned to go away the Brule fired, striking turned to go away the Brule fired, striking him in the back of the head and killing him instantly. Lieut. Casey was one of the most brilliant and honored officers in the service. There is a report of heavy firing in or near the hostile camp that may be between the two elements of the Indian camp.

Secretary Proctor said this morning: do not know when I have heard of anything that has shocked me more than the news of Lieut. Casey's death. He was here in the apring and I grew very fond of him. He seemed so bright and energetic and enthusiastic, and he had such excellent plans and ideas about the Indian troubles. A SPICE OF ENYY.

"I'll have to separate that question into separate parts. The Subaya Post-Dispatch, is a morning paper, but it is not as successful, as you seem to think. It it not entitled to the Western Associated Press dispatches, but it enjoys the valuable privilege of a connection with a nother paper that is a member of the New York Association which is associated with the Western Associated Press. In that way it enjoys the advantage of the Western Associated Press dispatches, a thing that I do not think should be permitted. I believe the by-laws of the Western Associated Press forbid such Connections, and had the Republic and the Globe-Democrat objected, as they should have done, at the beginning of the enterprise, it would not, in my opinioh, have lived three months. AMONG THE BROKERS.

Very Dull Market-Stocks Sold and Prices Obtained To-Day. There were only two stocks dealt in on the Mining Exchange this morning, and prices generally were unchanged.

Elizabeth was the stock most actively traded in, and in fact was the only active property on the market. It opened with a decline. The first sale was one of 200 shares decline. The first sale was one of 200 shares at $2.50, but the stock was immediately afterward offered at that price, with no takers. At $2.47½ sales were large, aggregating 1,200 shares, but this did not exhaust the supply, and at $2.45 the sales amounted to 1,300 shares. From this point there was a sharp revival and the price ran to $2.50 before a sale was made. At that quotation 1,200 shares changed hands and the market closed at $2.50 bid.

Central silver was somewhat stronger and 1,000 shares soid at 5.

The precipitation has been from one to five inches throughout the West in a strip 400 to 500 miles wide and extending almost across the country from the Canadian line south. At Palestine, Tex., the rainfall was 4.70 inches. Rain was noticed this morning in Arkansas and the Indian Territory. Yesterday morning it was raining at Springfield, Mo, and this morning it was snowing. The dividing line where the snow ended and the rain began was in Kansas, and from the reading of the precipitation at Wichita, there must be over a foot of snow. Snow is failing in the Dakotas, in Wyoming and Montana today and the belt is moving slowly eastward. At the speed the rain has been making the belt will reach this city to night. The indications are that the temperature will be ho colder, and if it remains as it has been today there will be snow. The Signal Office states that the weather will not be much colder until after the rain and snow pass over. There is an area of cold in North Dakota and the eastern portion of Montana, which is following up the cold and may reach here Sunday or Monday. The impression prevails that the farm will lose no time opening up on the corporations to secure the amendment of some of acts governing them. When is attempted, if at all, lobbyists will, as they have the farmers in the city to get their fine work. That the farmers in things practically their own way in thouse was manifested at the Democracaucus held last night in the Capitol.

W. F. Tuttle of Pettis was hominated the Speakership, A. W. Florea of Nodaw for Speaker pro tem., and Abner s. Sm of Ralls for Chief Clerk. All three are far ers and connected prominently with Grange organization in the State. Evenember who had a candidate to proper tried to connect him in some way with failfe. The member who nominated Ch. Rowland, a young St. Louis attorney, Assistant Chief Clerk, laid special phasis on the statement that his candid had been raised on a farm. Rowland got place on the slate, but nothing was said the speech about his being a lawyer. You Joe Shelby, who was made doorkeeper, hominated as a farmer and a son of the Confederate of that name. All the others lected in the cancus were nominated eltas farmers or ex-farmers.

Martin was mad, but he did not want to give away the "toss up" deal. The caucus gave Martin a sop for his lacerated feelings in the shape of the nomination for Speaker pro tem. The other nominations were then made as follows: E. A. Clark of Gasconade, Chief Clerk; W. F. Burrows of Gasconade, Chief Cierk; W. F. Burrows of Harrison, Engrossing Cierk; J. P. Swanson of Miller, Enrolling Cierk; J. E. The names proposed were those of Rev. Mr. Jacoby of St. Louis, Rev. Mr. Huff of Andrew and Rev. Shoemaker of Warren. In their nominating speeches the country mem-bers all spoke of the war records of their respective candidates. When it came to nominating the Chaplain, Martin asked Rep-resentative Amelung of the South St. Louis ministers with a st. Louis clergyman.

"Who will I nominate?" asked Martin.

"Give it to Rev. Jacoby, but I don't know i he has a war record," replied Amelung. "Well, we'll give him one anyhow," was Martin's rejoinder. He then made a long speech extolling Mr. Jacoby's merits and wound up with the declaration that his candidate had seen five years of service in the defense of his country. Mr. Jacoby was then elected with a whoop and Martin felt jubilant at having received some recognition for St. Louis.

Hetilpern was the confidential book-keeper for the Columbia Milling company which operated one of the largest flour mills in the Northwest. He moved in the best society and stood well in business circles. In November he disappeared. An investigation revealed the defalcation. Helipern had drawn checks to the amount of $35,000 on the company's bank, forging the firm's name in a dozen instances. One check for $1,200 he had cashed. He had also appropriated $3,500 of the company's money. Warrants charging the man with grand larceny and forgery were sworn out, and every effort put forward to apprehend the fugitive. Finally he was located in Mexico, but no attempt at extradition was made. Finally Hellpern tired of life across the border and ventured to El Paso, Tex. The authorities at this point were on the watch and immediately telegraphed the Minneapolis department. Inspector Hay secured proper requisition papers and left for Texas, arriving in El Paso last Sunday. The same day he located his man at the principal hotel and took him into custody. The prisoner admits everything and insists that he lost all the money in wheat speculations. Inspector Hay, however, clams that a Minneapolis woman is at the bottom of the trouble. Diamonds and other valuable presents, which Hellpern had given her, have been recovered. The prisoner is 40 years old and deserted a family in his flight, Inspector Hay will leave for Minneapolis with his man this eventing.

THE BUCK INQUEST CONTINUED

The inquest in the case of L. L. Buck was commenced in the Coroner's office this morning. Six witnesses were examined, but no new evidence of any importance was submitted. All that could be shown was that the young man had gone to the theater Sunday night with a friend named Sam Ray, had returned to the saloon at 100 Mariet street and then disappeared. He was last seen with Ray in this saloon. At 2:30 o'clock the following morning he was found unconscious in the yard in the rear of 1010 Market street. At the City Hospital a concussion of the brain developed and the patient died. During the in tervals of consciousness, he several times asked the attendant who had struck him. Bay has not yet been found. The missing witness was employed as a buggy washer at Geiger's livery stable, Ninth and Waisst streets, until a few days ago. Monday he was seen down town. The inquest was continued until next Saturday morning in order to give the police an opportunity to bring him in. The inquest in the case of L. L. Buck wa

THE CONFEDERATE WHITE HOUSE.

It Is to Be Used For the Preservation of RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 8 .- It is settled that the old-fashioned brick structure here, known during the war as the Confederate White House, is to be used in future for the preservation of Confederate relics. A movement was started more than a year ago by the Ladies' Hollywood Memorial Association to get this building for this purpose. Some legal get this building for this purpose. Some legal objection was raised to this on the ground that the city did not have authority to surrender the property for the object sought. This, however, was overcome by making it a museum as well as a place for the preservation of war relies. Two branches of the City Council recently passed an ordinance carrying into effect the purposes of the ladies. Mayor Ellison opproved the action last night.

INGALLS' FIGHT.

Queer and startling incidents occur nnection with elections of United States nators in Kansas, especially when In-GALLS is a candidate, and more especially e leaders of the opposition hate, the one against the other."

While he was in Kansas on two weeks eave of absence a bombshell, tossed from Washington by a presumably friendly hand, landed in the Alliance camp at Topeka. It lay there fizzing out of sight of the public till he returned to Washington, and then it exploded. There is no prod that he did it, but it is done in a way to divert suspicion from INGALIS, and at the same time to scatter and confuse the forces of the opposition to him.

This bombshell was a Washington letter lated Dec. 31 from TURNER, one of the deeated Republican Congressmen from Kanas, offering the President of the Kansas Farmers' Alliance $5,000 for successfu sistance in electing TURNER to succeed INGALLS. It was so written as to implicate President McGrath and one or two other lliance leaders in plotting to sell enough of the Alliance vote in the Legislature to elect some Republican outsider in place of INGALLS; and in a very obviously preconcerted way this letter reached Topeka while McGrath was in Florida, and was shown by his private secretary to other Alliance leaders and aspirants, who had it photographed and copies made of it without his knowledge, before McGRATH ever saw it.

There is no evidence upon which IN GALLS can be held responsible for the ensuing row and break-up in the Alliance camp, but it inures to his benefit, as did the planting and explosion of the bribery mine which blew "Old Pom" out of the Senate and put INGALLS in his place. This plot may not succeed, but if it fails, others will follow it. An Ingalls campaign is generally marked by most versatile and enterprising strategy.

If Chicago should get her interminable site question settled by that date, these services will be needed to assist the appeals that will then be made to the States for contributions. But would not such commemoration of the 400th anniversary make the subsequent function at Chicago superfluous and meaningless?

In administering a severe but deserved rebuke to Commander REITER for his inaction in the Barrundia matter, Secretary TRACY truly tells him that few cases have ever occurred in the history of the United States navy where a commanding officer so completely abandoned the responsibilities of his position. This is an official affirmation of the position the POST-DISPATCH took months ago in contrasting REITER'S course with Cant. INGRAHAM'S forcible rescue of Koszta from an Austrian vessel.

PLUMB's vote against side-tracking the force bill is no indication that he would have voted for such a bill when put on its passage. He never showed any desire to dodge the responsibility of voting directly against the McKinley bill, and was man enough to be one of the three Republican Senators who did vote directly against it. Perhaps he preferred to take the same course on the force bill.

Car Platforms.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
As one of the citizens who continu ronize the street cars, I beg through your "People's Column" to make a public complaint, not only for myself, but in behalf of all our citizens who make use of the street cars, and particularly in behalf of ladies and children. My complaint is against every street car corporation, because of the generally crowded and otherwise uncomfortable condition of the back platforms. During the morning and evening hours when there is the greatest rush, it is almost impossible to get into or to get off a car without great difficulty or inconvenience. The crowds of men through which one has to pass—the elbowing and pushing and rubbing against the persons of men—particularly by ladies, is always unpleasant and sometimes grossly indecent. In addition to this, when the platforms contain several smokers, it becomes unendurable. And more than this, the crowded platforms make egress dangerous. Very lately an elderly lady on an electric car, being compelled to squeeze through a gang of men, and unable by their crowding to get hold of the side or safety handles, had to jump off the high step, when she very badly fractured her ankle. It is time that the public should demand both decency and safety as to the back platforms, lift is so necessary that the company shall provide for the few smokers that are usually on a car, let them be provided for elsewhere, and then compel all other passengers to vacate the platform, leaving it alone to the conductor. Doubless there are hundreds of our citizens who would cheerfully pay 6 cents fare on a car where they would be sure of a safe ingress and egress with a good seat, rather than 5 cents for the indecent unaccommodations which they now have. At 'public improvement' meetings of the citizens, let this little matter be taken up, and we shall soon have a healthy and powerful public opinion on the subject. ronize the street cars, I beg through you

New York, Jan. 8 .- At a late hour yester Juggiro case, granting an appeal from his denial of an application for a writ of habeas corpus. This the case to the United States Supreme Court and again delays the execution for an indefinite period—until next October, Mr. Sherman says. It had been set down for the week beginning Jan. 12, in Sing Sing prison. The following is Judge Lacombe's decision:

"The prayer of the petitioner for a writ of beas corpus to inquire into the cause of his total of the State Court in violation, as he leges of the constitution and statutes of detention at Sing Sing prison takes a variation in the State Court in violation, as he alleges, of the constitution and statutes of the United States having been denied and the order duly entered, he now appeals thereon to the Supreme Court. Such as appeal, under sec. 763 and 764 of the United States Revised Statutes (as amended by the act of March 3, 1885), is accorded to him as an absolute statutory right. The appeal and citation, when issued more than thirty days before the first day of the next term of the Supreme Court, must be returnable on the first day of said term. The Judge of the Circuit Court is required to sign such citation and has no discretion to fix any day. This is the second application in this court for a writ of habeas corpus by this petitioner under the same conviction, and two of the grounds upon which he bases his present application, viz.: The alleged fact that persons of his race and color were excluded, because of his race and color, from the jury list and panel, and the alleged fact that proper counsel was not assigned to him by the court existed when he viz.: The alleged fact that persons of his race and color were excluded, because of his race and color, from the jury list and panel, and the alleged fact that proper counsel was not assigned to his by the court existed when he made his former application. Whether this is the second or twenty-second application, however, is immaterial under the statutes as they stand. It seems to be left for the petitioner alone, to determine not only how many times he will apply for the writ and whether he will appeal from its denial, but also how often he will by such appeal invoke the ald of sec. 76 United States Statutes, which provides that until final judgment therein, proceeding against his person under the state authority shall be null and void. What the precise effect of the peculiar phraseology of the last section may be, whether pending such appeal, it operates as a stay or merely as a warning that wheever under State authority may take any proceeding against the person of the neitloner does so at his peril, is not now before this court for decision. The only matters now presented on the appeal are its formal allowance and the fixing of the return day, as to both of which the court has no discretion."

Of course, it is hard for any of them to find it, because its secrets are guarded, and a traitor has hardly ever been known in its ranks. But it is constantly engaged in the work of conspiracy and in propagating revolutionary ideas. Its members desire the overthrow of every government in monarchial Europe and the reconstruction of the whole industrial system. The Paris dispatch says that it is an Anarchist body, but it is totally opposed to Anarchism and is a Socialist body, as can be seen by its declaration of principles. That declaration was drawn by Karl Marx, a quarter of a century ago, when the International was founded, and its language throughout CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 8 .- Four mysterio since Saturday night. Dick Page, a colored laborer, was the first victim. His body was found on Saturday night in an old field on Col. Rogers' plantation, with the breechpin of a gun buried in his skull. On the same night W. T. Parker and Brock Balley were seen drinking together, and shortly afterwards the dead bodies of both were found lying near where Page's body was found. On Monday the Coroner was called to the plantation to view the body of a colored woman who, it was said, was beaten to death by some unknown person. It is thought the murders were all committed by the same person, and there is much excitement in the neighborhood.

bout fifteen hundred inhabitants, is at fever heat over an alleged murder. The whole thing came out at the Coroner's inquest over Miss Effle Taylor, a spinster of 31, who suicided by taking strychnine a few days ago. Miss Taylor's father, according to the evidence of Dr. J. L. Steinberg, was in love with a colored girl named Carrie Moss, they living together as man and wife. The Moss girl fell in love with Rev. J. M. Clark, married and pastor of the colored Baptist church, and his reverence reciprocated. Miss Taylor was anxious to get rid of Moss, and the latter likewise of Mrs. Clark. Therefore the minister's wife was poisoned. Steinberg afterwards became Miss Taylor's lover, and she confessed to him that she assisted Clark and Moss in disposing of the former's wife. Rev. Clark and wife No. 2 were arrested yesterday and lodged in Jalla. The crime occurred in 1886. heat over an alleged murder. The whole city attempts to deny that the situation is with the suicide here at his home of youn very serious. The agitation has commenced in the various building trades unions, and that a slight increase all along the line will be usked for there is little doubt. The organization of the Building Trades Council, as noted in the POST-DISPATCH SOME actices so eccentric that there is good rea son for doubting his sanity. Some years ag an aunt residing in another city was invite to visit the family, and did so, and durin her stay one of the members died. Later sh paid another visit, and again there was death. The circumstance was noted as rathe range matters so that union men of no parher stay one of the member apaid another visit, and again there was death. The circumstance was noted as rain singular; but a year later she came five third time, and either whise was staying or immediately aft her departure, there was a third death, strange a coincidence was very distressing all concerned as she is a lady of great ambility of character and held in highest este and regard by her relatives. Upon a four visit death again attended her, and when s returned to her home she announced she hetermined never to come back to Baltimagain. She kept her resolution for some timbut her brother, the father of young win the early part of December, wrote to larging her to spend the Christmas holid with the family. He spoke lightly of superstitious associations attending former visits, and remarked humorously tit was now impossible for anyone to die. which non-union men are employed. This hodcarriers, plasterers, painters, and severs other union organizations. This centraliza-tion has been attempted before, but it is generally recognized that the unions were never before so solidly organized as now. The from an alliance are now fast dropping into organization. This amalgamation simply means that all the various organizations are combined into one body, and should one body with the family. He spoke indity of the superstitious associations attending her former visits, and remarked humorously that it was now impossible for anyone to die, as they were all in the best of health and could defy the ghastly intruder as on former occasions of appearance. As she had so often shared their grief in bereavement, it was now proper that she should enjoy with them the pleasures they had planned for the Christmas holidays. With some misgivings and yet inclined now to consider the singular chain of circumstances in the past as merely a coincidence, the aunt broke her resolution and came to Baltimore. Christmas went merrily by, and all went well until New Year's night. A little before midnight the aunt retired from the company in the parlor, intending to go to her room which joined that of her nephew, young McVickar, who had been out all the evening. Seeing his door partly open and the light burning dimly, she concluded that he had come in unobserved, and had had probably fallen asleep without undressing. She entered his apartment and in an instant was frozen with horror, for there, on the bed, he lay dead, a pistol in his hand and blood all about him. He had slipped into the house and gone up-stairs and shot himself, the report of the revolver being unheard below. Thus for the fifth time was a death in the family associated immediately with his aunt's visit. Why young Wyatt took his life is a mystery. There is a report that he was secretly married and stood in fear of trouble in connection with the aliance. Some of his strange freaks, as already stated, seem to indicate insanity. Among other queer practices he was in the habit of crucifying stray cats against the wall of his garden, impaling the animals against the fence by drawing nails through their feet. He would also extract the fangs of snakes and force tobacco down the throats of the repities. He had a hot, uneven temper, and was domineering and fery. His family is among the most fashionable in the city. strike every other organization in the building trades would quickly follow. THE POWER OF THE TRADES COUNCIL.

A public rehearsal is to be given at the rooms of the Aschenbrodel Club, No. 604 Market street, to-morrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, to which Mayor Noonan and other city officials, as also a number of prominent business and professional gentlemen of the city, have been invited. St. Louis has long felt the need of a good military band, independent of the Arsenal Band, which is seldom heard in the city, and Prof. Maddern seems to be just the man to take the lead in a movement of this kind. He was formerly the leader of the orchestra at Pope's Theater, but accepted a call to Chicago some six years ago, where he conducted the orchestra of the Chicago Operahouse for several years and with great success. He returned to St. Louis last summer and has had charge of the orchestra at the Grand Operahouse since the opening of the play season last fall. He has introduced a number of new features into the orchestra music there, which have taken well with the public, in fact, become very popular.

> Council, The carpenters, it seems, did not submit to the central body their new scale of wages to the central body before sending the demand to the bosses, and as a consequence it is thought by some the allowance of their claim will only serve to complicate matters, supposing the new scales of the other unions are fought. The carpenters, as members of the Building Council, must oppose any boss who will not pay the wages asked for by another organization which is a member of the central body. This matter has, however, it is claimed, been settled satisfactory to all parties concerned.

WHAT IS COMING?

Everything at present is merely in formation, and the result cannot by any means be predicted. But that the bosses will within two weeks receive the new scale of prices from all the various unions, to take effect May I, there is no room for doubt. When the scales are received the whole batch will most probably be acted upon by the Master Builders' Association. The latter anticipate a slight advance in the wages of most of their employes, and will probably allow such, but should the advance be greater than expected from any one organization the whole number of building mechanics are liable to celebrate Labor Day by a phenomenal strike.

The strength roughly estimated by members of the various unions affected is as follows: Carpenters, 2,200; bricklayers, 3,000; masons, 900; hod-earriers, 1,400; palasterers, 1,100; painters, 800, and other organizations affected, 1,000. This estimate makes the total number of mon affected 10,200.

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

Robert A. Kuentzler was taken in to custody late yesterday afternoon on the strength of a warrant charging him with embezzlement. The prosecuting witness in the action is Victor Sarner, the editor and publisher of a German humorous weekly called the "Kladderadasch." Kuentzler, it appears, was employed by sarner to solicit subscriptions and was given verbal and printed instructions to collect no money. Tuesday Sarner found that the man had disregarded these instructions and sont out a representative to investigate the list which Kuentzler had submitted. Out of a total of forty-six of these alleged subscribers only eight were found to be genuine. In some cases the parties denounced their signatures as forgeries, while no trace of others could be found at the addresses given. In a postscript attached to the above he makes his last bid for the Alliance support. The postscript reads:

Unless Ingalls gets some Alliance votes he will go in with sixty-two who will vote for him a reasonable number of times, but as soon as their instractions are complied with they will leave him. Some of the Alliance candidates may expect to get some of the Republicans when they leave Ingalls. That would keep all of them in the field. Codding thought he could get the Republican vote when Ingalls was out of the way. Of course an Alliance cancus for that purpose would name the man and that would end it.

Gov. Russell's Message. Boston, Mass., Jan. 8 .- In his message to the Legislature to-day Gov. Russell advocates an amendment to the constitution of the State annulling so much of it as requires the payment of a tax as a qualification for votpayment of a tax as a qualification for voting. He advises that the law requiring the publication of election expenses be extended and be made more stringent. The Governor deals with the question of the "lobby" at great length. He says: "It is far easier to state the evil than suggest the remedy. Clearly it is impossible and improper to prevent a constituent or other persons from having the freest access to a legislator. This constitutional right, guaranteed to the people, gives opportunity to the lobby to do its work. Prevention by non-intercourse is therefore impossible. Prevention by pub-licity is possible, and I would suggest for your consideration whether a remedy may not be found in this direction by making it easier than it is now, Jpublicly to investigate the methods used and money spent on pending legislation, and also by granting power to some propen officer be-fore a measure finally becomes a law to de-mand under oath a full and detailed statement as to these matters. The fear of pub-licity and through it of defeat, may stop improper practices by making them worse than useless." Gov. Russell strongly recommends that the Legislature petition Congress to take action for the proper protection of railroad em-

NICHOLS' GREAT NERVE.

NORTH ST. LOUIS ELOPEMENT. WITH SOME QUEER FEATURES.

A Letter-Carrier Asks His Wife to Receive the Girl With Whom He Intended to Run Away—A Touching Story of a On New Year's Eve pretty Bertha Neff left her father's house without a word of expla-nation or of intimation that she would not return. Her sisters and brothers were gathered around the family fireside awaiting the stroke of 12 which would ring out the old year. Her father, Christ Neff, the wealthy saloon-keeper of North St. Louis, was also present, and completed the family gathering, the mother having been dead for some years and the younger children being looked after by Miss Emma Neff, the oldest daughter. The home which Bertha deserted as the year was ending is the well-known garden and stopping-place for funeral parties kept by Christ Neff at 6212 North Broadway. She has not returned or communicated with her family. A PROBABLE ELOPEMENT. From developments following her disap-pearance, it is made apparently certain that she left her home to fiee with J. Ben Nichols, a leading Republican politician of North St. Louis, who was a letter-carrier for the discated. Nichols, who is a married man, has also disappeared from home, leaving a wife and three little children at circumstances. He had known the Neff family for years and had watched Bertha grow up from a pretty school girl into a quiet and win-ning woman of 18. That he had succeeded in draw her from the path of virtue was never suspected for a moment, and the flight of the guilty pair has brought sorrow and desolation into two respectable families.

day afternoon, and the story told this morning is a peculiarly touching one in spirit and incident. When Bertha left home on New Year's eve it was supposed she was going to visit some neighbor. But when the night passed and New Year's Day dawned with the young girl still absent from home the family became alarmed, and the eldest daughter, Emma, confided to her father her belief that Bertha had run away with some lover. There was no suspicion as to the identity of the lover, however,

As has been learned by the father of the girl, since that last glimpse of Nichols in the role of the family friend, the man must have been playing a most villainous part. According to Neff's story, at midnight of the New Year, Nichols appeared at his own home on Kossuth avenue, with Bertha Neff and told his wife that the girl would have to stop with them for some time. Mrs. Nichols, it is said, flatly refused to consent to such an arrangement, and insisted upon her husband taking the girl back to her own home.
NICHOLS' ULTAMATUM.

"All right," said the letter-carrying Lothario. "But if Bertha don't stay in this house, I don't stay either," and he left his home with the young woman and has not since returned. Where they went from there that night, or what direction they have taken since they they went from there that night, or what direction they have taken since then, is a matter of conjecture only. The one fact known is that they were seen taking the electric cars crossing the bridge to kast St. Louis on Saturday forenoon last, and were supposed to have flown to Chicago. On Friday morning, following Nichols' visit to his own home with Bertha Neff, Mrs. Nichols went to the Neff home and told the girl's father of that visit and of her fears that her husband had eloned with her fears that her husband had eloped with the girl. This confirmed the suspicion al-ready entertained by the Neffs that Bertha had been lured away by a lover, but the fact that Nichols was the guilty man was learned then for the first time. Strange to say, however, no inquiry was made at that time at the North St. Louis Post-office mained at his post until Saturday morning, when he asked Supt. Peter Gundlach to excuse him from duty for that day as he was not feeling well. He had received the month's salary due him, and upon being excused from duty then disappeared forever from the scene of his official labors. It would seem that the affair remained in that sheep until that the affair remained in that shape until yesterday, when Christ Neff, the father of the missing girl, went to the North St. Louis Post-office, and upon being told that Nichols had not been at work since Saturday, charged the invisible letter carrier with having eloped with Bertha. Superintendent Gundlach then reported to Postmaster Harlow that Carrier Nichols had not reported for duty for bildays past and his name was ordered stricken from the roll of carriers. It was only then that the mysterious elopement was made public. that the affair remained in that shape until man Nichols without our suspecting it I cannot imagine. Of course, he was here every day delivering letters, and he knew all my children well and would talk with both my grown daughters, but we knew he was married and had a family, and the least thing like love-making on his part would have been acticed at once. I cannot say whether or not he may have been in the habit of meeting Bertha away from home. That was possible, of course, but I believe that he also must have corresponded with her and made arrangements for the flight her and made arrangements for the flight in that way. He certainly did not have much chance for talking love to her here.

'On New Year's morning I was in a good humor and was calling to all my children to happy New Year. When my oldest daughter happy New Year. When my oldest daughter came in she was crying and said that Bertha had not returned home that night, and that she was afraid that she had run away. That spoiled our New Year, and I was feeling awful blue in my saloon when this man Nichols came in with some letters. I told him about Bertha's disappearance and the scoundrel put on a long face and said he would help to find her. He knew that very moment right where she was," and the father then told the story of Mrs. Nichols' visit to him the day after New Year's and of the story of the gullity pair appearing at Nichols' home New Year's night. "This is all we know so far," concluded Mr. Neff, "and it only makes us sure that Nichols and Bertha have eloped together."

MEMBERS OF THE SAME LODGE. MEMBERS OF THE SAME LODGE.

It appears that Nichols and the father of the missing girl were fellow-officers of a lodge of Knights of Honor in North St. Louis, Nichols being the Chancellor and Christ Neff the High Priest. The latter in his statements alluded Priest. The latter in his statements alluded to the fact, as showing the friendly terms upon which they stood.

A call at the residence of the missing mail carrier at 4009 Kossuth avenue found the front gate locked, and after jumping the fence the reporter found that the house was also deserted. The neighbors had not seen Mrs. Nichols since the previous day, and supposed she might possibly have gone to her relatives or friends for the day. At the North St. Louis Post-office nothing has been heard of Nichols, He was spoken of as an employe of the Post-office for the past sixteen years, and a good letter-carrier. Six years ago he was a candidate on the Republican ticket for the office of Inspector of Weights and Measures, and was widely known throughout North St. Louis.

THE TYPE FOUNDRY STRIKE.

A delegation of the striking employes of the Central Type Foundry called at the Post-Disclon as to the identity of the lover, however, and when, in the course of New Year's morning, J. Ben Nichols, the letter carrier, dropped into Neff's saloon the father told him of his daughter's disappearance. Nichols, it is said, expressed the deepest sympathy with the family and volunteered to use every effort in his power to discover the wayward girl's whereabouts. They were satisfied with their wages, or would have been but for the 40 cents a day tax assessed against each man for gas. When the committee from their assembly of the Knights of Labor cailed on the company with their grievance Mr. St. John refused to recognize them, as he didn't want to be dictated to as regards his business by any organization. If, however, they would come separately, he would listen to them. The next day, yesterday, the committee called again, but Mr. St. John hadn't changed his mind, but ordered the chairman of the committee, who is also the President of the assembly, to go to work. The latter refused on the ground that he was then acting for his assembly, and Mr. St. John discharged him, they claim. The company claim that they went to considerable expense to put in the gas plant, and that as it costs them a great deal more to operate with it than with coal, the employes should share the expense, particularly as they can earn 29 per cent more, they claim, with gas machines than with fuel burners, the men all doing piece work.

Each factory will be assessed for general expenses and the profits will be divided in proportion to the size of the factories. No outside working capital-will be in the deal. This arrangement, it is expected, will bring about uniform prices, saving on moids and saving by shutting down big establishments that do not have enough work to keep all of it going. An Executive Beard will manage the concern. The number of hands employed in the nineteen factories is over eight thousand and the total weekly pay roll is $200,000.

He came to St. Louis nearly fifteen years ago, with four men from Chicago, and opened a branch of the lard and soap manufacturing establishment of N. K. Fairbank & Co. and in a few years had the satisfaction of seeing the business of the St. Louis house grow to enormous proportions. BRILLIANT LOCAL ATTRACTIONS.

The "Heir at Law"-"The Black Hussar" -Other Theatrical Events. It is almost as much pleasure to watch the audiences at the Olympic as the performances. Bob Acres gets a firm grip upon his hearers and can get a roar of laughter by crooking his finger. Two rather roughly dressed men laughed and pinched each other dressed men laughed and pinched each other and repeated the lines until they nearly went into convulsions and gave them to the people around. Mr. Jefferson says that his Tuesday night audience here was one of the best he ever had. The sympathy between the audience and the actor could be cut with a knife. But the performance is a delightful one—an artistic picture from beginning to end.

To-night Colman's "Helr-at-Law" will be given and the production has been a brilliant success elsewhere. It gives both stars, Mr. Jefferson and Mr. Florence, great opportunities, and the cast, which inc udes that distinguished artist, Mme. Parisi, is a superbone. This comedy will run urtil the close of the week, "The Rivals," however, being repeated Saturday.

The artistic performance of "Clover" at Musle Hall by the McCaull Co. has made a thorough hit and to-night the McCaull production of "The Black Hussar" will be put on, as it is promised, in splendid style. The strength of the fine company, including Misses Bertram, Myers, Knapp, Laura Joyce Bell, Chauncey Olcott, Digby Bell, Chas. W. Dungan will be in the cast, and trained horses, a military band and a large trained chorus are promised. Miss Knapp took the part of Stella in "Clover," and gave a bright and charming performance.

"The Sea King" is proving its popularity against strong competition in a remarkable way at the Grand. The production is one of the brightest and most entertaining in the comic opera line which has been in St. Louis. R. E. Cleveland for Heresy. CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 8.-The trial of the tinued to-day before the ecclesiastical court of the Episcopal diocese of Ohio. Rev. Mac of the Episcopal diocese of Chio. Rev. Macqueary made a long argument in defense of his position, and predicted that the views set forth by him in his book and in the pulpit would be generally adopted before the dawn of the twentieth century. He also stated that if expelled from the Episcopal pulpit he would continue to preach his doctrines concerning the conception, birth and resurrection of Christ, but he begged the court for the sake of the church not to find him guilty, because he feared damaging results would follow such an action in this transitional age. Mr. Bates, the attorney for the prosection, demanded that Rev. MacQueary be declared guilty, because he was being tried by a courtei to-day and not of a century hence, and because he read things from the scriptures and then advised his hearers not to believe them. Rev. MacQueary rather anticipates conviction, in which case he will probably go into the Unitarian Church. The case is arousing widespread interest among all denominations of church people.

The Rochester Shoemakers' Strike-Rail road Men and Their Grievances. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 8 .- The strike

among the shoemakers in Rochester is evidently on its last legs. The manufacturers who declared the lockout are getting their shops into running order very rapidly. About all the girls who were locked out have many of the men have gone back. Members of the Shoemakers' Council don't deny this and say that within a very short time they expect that all the locked-out men will be back at work in their old shops. They explain this by vague talk about agreements with the wanniacturers and say that all they want is that the lockout shall be declared off. They insist, however, that the Cox strike will never be declared off. The manufacturers are unanimous in 'leclaring that their rules will never be so altered as to allow their old employes to come back to work as union men until the Cox strike is declared off. Meanwhile, nobody on either side attempts to deny that the old employes are going back to work in numbers daily. many of the men have gone back. Member

Railroad Men's Grievances.

PITTSEURG, Pa., Jan. 8.-The grievances ne trainmen, which have been presented the local superintendents of the Pennsylvanis burg & Western Railroad, extend to all divi sions from this city to Chicago and st. Owing to the extent of the systems, it will be sometime before any action will be taken on the matter. The freight traffic is so slack now that the officials say there will more likely be a decrease than increase in any instance.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 8 .- A New York speci says that the meeting at the office of Commissioner Goddard called to adjust the freigh rate disagreement between the roads leading from Chicago to St. Paul has resulted successfully. The "Soo," represented by Traffic Manager Shute, agreed to restore rates to what they were a year ago, with the understanding that there should be no further change till the opening of navigation in the spring. "The agreement," Commissioner Goddard said, "is not a compromise. The other roads simply stand where they are, and the 'Soo,' which has been the cause of all the trouble, restores its rates to the usual winter basis."

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.-The market to-day is clined to speculate heavily until the railroad magnates now in conference have arrived at some conclusion. The attention of Wall et is closely fixed on the railroad meeting and the likelihood is that everything will be neld in abeyance until the result of their destreet is that the prospects for an agreement

GOULD'S SUPPOSED POSITION. is now looked on by many rather in the light efactor, as it is believed that he is heartly in favor of some agreement, and that his action in reference to the Omaha move hostile to the interests of a combinapiece of generalship to induce other roads not only to subscribe to an agreement, but also to keep their pledges. The chances of a solution of the Western problem are regarded more favorably than they have been since the rather impotent conclusion of the Morgan meeting. News from London is of a of the board of directors of the Bank of Enrates from 5 to 4 per cent.

This had the effect of causing a stoppage of the selling orders. Cablegrams were received in London stating that a revolution had broken out in Chili, and this may exert a depressing influence on the market, but as yet there have been no particulars received, and the whole thing may prove to be a canard. The effect of the consideration of silver legislation by Congress is less than had been anticipated, as it is regarded as highly improbable that anything will be accomplished during the present session.

able that anything will be accomplished during the present session.

The stock market this morning showed less breadth than for the past few days, but a strong tone was apparent and the opening prices as compared with the final figures of last evening generally show advances of from to be a per cent, though Lake Shore was a marked exception, with a loss of ½. In the early dealings St. Paul and Louisville lead in the dealings among the active shares, but the industrials were more prominent than usual of late and Sugar Refineries became the one strong feature of the market rising rapidly from 59 to 61. After this the general list displayed more activity and strength and Lackawanna rose ½ per cent to 1864, though the advances in the others were confined to the smallest fractions. Sugar at the same time reacted sharply to 594, but among the inactive stocks, Tennessee Coal rose 1½ to 36, and Delaware & Hudson, 1 to 134. There was little or no feature in the remainder of the market and at 11 o'clock, while a firm tone prevailed, prices were but slightly changed from those of the opening.

Money was easy at 334 per cent. The stock parket exhibited less animation after 11 o'clock, but displayed stronger tone in the general 4st, and further advances were scored, though they in all cases were for fractional amounts only. AN EFFORT TO SHUT UP THE RUBY MINES FAILS.

The New Men Sent to the Pits by the Con

An attempt was made by the Consu Coal Co. of St. Louis to-day to start up the Ruby Mines near Caseyville, St. Clair Co ty, Ill., that they were not successful in their efforts. Yesterday they notified Sheriff Dawson of St. Clair County to hold himself in ess w quell a disturbance which they feared would occur at the mines. The company said that the miners who had been thrown out of employment had not as yet committed any wrongful act, but that their attitude was threatening and trouble might occur at any time. Sheriff Dawson was informed that the company in ended to endeavor to start work this morn ing and that it was feared that the men who vere out might attempt to interfere with the new hands. GIVEN TWO DEPUTIES.

At their request he gave the company two eputies to assist in protecting the new employes and preserving order at the mines. These two deputies started out early this morning with the superintendent of the mines. Caseyville is on the Ohio & Mississippi road about twelve miles from St. Louis and the Ruby mines are about three miles from Caseyville. As was stated in yesterday's Post-DISPATCH the trouble grew out of the Consumers Coal Co., which operates the Ruby mines, reducing the pay of its miners from 42 cents per box to 35 cents per box. The men refused to submit to the lower schedule of pay and ast Saturday they were given in full the money due them and discharged. The Consumers' company advertised for new men to take their places and soon had thirty-four men on the ground, but the miners who are out, numbering sixty men, refused to let the new men enter the shaft of the mines. This led to more the more described by the more places and soon had thirty-four men on the ground, but the miners who are out, numbering sixty men, refused to let the new men enter the shaft of the mines. CARONDELET NEWS. The Old Iron Works Chimney Blown Up by Dynamite—Notes.

Shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the tall chimney of the old Mier Iron-works in East Carondelet was blown to atoms by dynamite. For the past ten days several dynamite. For the past ten days several attempts were made to dislodge the mammeth brick structure, but the workmen were unsuccessful. At about the above stated hour a heavy charge of dynamite was secreted in one of the air shafts. Supt. Ed Pugh ignited the fuse, and the explosion which followed was terrific, it having been heard and felt for miles. The tall chimney fell with a fearful crash, bricks flying in all directions. The chimney was erected in 1870, and was 280 feet high and made of solid fire-clay brick.

The Enforced Slavery of Italian Laborers

spector Mulholland sent to the District Attorney yesterday the affidavit of an Italian office after being a prisoner in the phosphate beds of South Carolina for nearly two years. During that time he and a number of his companions were ill-treated and one of their number shot dead while trying to escape from the place. Celestino Dimarco of East One Hundred and Thirteenth street, this city, is alleged to be mainly responsible for the cruelty and killing of the men, according to the story told to Inspector Mulholland. Garribaldi arrived here in 1888, and answered an advertisement calling for 300 men at No. 47 Mulberry street. He went there and was engaged to go to work in Jacksenborough, Colleton County, S. C., being told that he could earn $2, a day. About thirty other Italians were engaged at the same time. Fifty cents a day was the average salary earned, and out of that the men had to pay for their rations, which they were compelled to live in were in a frightful condition. The workmen began to rebel, and a guard of twelve men with rifles and pistols was placed about the camp, with instructions to shoot the first man who tried becamp. To the negroes who lived out side the camp Dimarcooffered a reward of $10 for every man that they brought back who attempted to escape. Dominico Peal, a Venetian named "Johnnie," and Nicola Valeen panions were ill-treated and one of their tempted to escape. Dominico Peal, a Vene-tian named "Johnnie," and Nicola Valeen managed to escape and took to the woods and attempted to reach a railroad station seven miles away. They were within a short distance of the place when a train rolled by and a man named Peppino, with half a dozen others jumped from the platform, covering the runaways with their rifles. Peni tried to escape and ran for water ahead of him. He was fired on by Peppino and fell in the water and has never since been heard of.

WILL GO TO OKLAHOMA. School Director William Knight Will Become a Townsite Trustee.

School Director William Knight, represent ng Carondelet in the School Board was made happy last Tuesday by being appointed to a for townsites in Oklahoma, Mr.
Knight is a mechanic in Carondelet and is also a favorite delet and is also a favorite in that section of the city, from where he was sent to the School Board for two terms as a citizen and not as a politician. He has been a conscientious director, and always on the alert to do something for his end of the city. The position to which he has been appointed is a fair one and of consideraple responsibility. He will receive $10 per day for his services and all expenses paid. As he will have considerable money to distribute, he will have to give bond for $10,000, which he will do this evening. He will leave for Oklahoma about Jan. 30, and his labors will demand his attention until June. He will probably keep his place in the School Board, as the term, which ends in November, is so short it would not be wise to hold another election to fill the vacancy for so short a period. It is also probable that his labors in Oklahoma will be finished in May or June, and in that event he can return and take his seat in the School Board again until his term expires.

FOREST PARK'S FUTURE.

SEVERAL PLANS FOR ITS MANAGEMENT BEING CONSIDERED.

Its Importance as a Resort and the Neces Recognized-The Cates Avenue Con-

The future of Forest Park is now calling the erious attention of the Mayor, the City Counsellor and the Park Commissioner, and all as yet, are in a rather undefined shape. One plan is to have the park put into the hands of a regular commission, which shall apply to the improvement of the park such funds as are raised by taxation on the property in the immediate neighborhood. The second plan is to have a boulevard district established and have it include Forest Park. The third plan is to continue to run it under the present system with larger appropriations. To put into effect the first two arrangements

t would be necessary to have the State Legislature take some action in the matter the park is put into the hands of a commission, the plan would be similar to that inder which Lincoln Park in as low as $1.15. Men's good suits as low as $1.85, to the finest Baltimore merchant tailor, $20; $25 and $30 suits and overcoats, $12.75. Boys' suits and overcoats as low as 49c and $50, to the finest Baltimore merchant tailor for the maintenance, the property around $20 and $25 suits and overcoats, $11.45 and $11.95. Roys' pants as low as 14c, to the finest baltimore merchant tailor for the maintenance, the property around the park is taxed with a special park tax.

Under the second system the State Legisland the park is taxed with a special park tax. $20 and $25 suits and overcoats, $11.45 and $11.95. Boys' pants as low as 14c, to the finest in proportion. Men's good pants from 190 to the finest Baltimore merchant tailor $7 and $8 pants, $4.85.

Ladies' $1.25 Dongola shoes, 75c, and $3 shoes, $1.55. Misses' rubbers, 15c. Men's shoes, $1.85. Misses' rubbers, 15c. Men's ladies' $1.25 Dongola shoes, $2.50;$1 velvet $1.50 shoes, $9c, and $3.50 shoes, $2.50;$1 velvet $1.50 shoes, $9c, and $3.50 shoes, $2.50;$1 velvet $1.50 shoes, $9c. Four-ply linen collars, 2½c; streets and the roads in the park. Mayor Noonan was seen and said: "Mr. Gibson has shoes, 15c. The only difficulty the board annotation of the contractors to make up their estimates on the thirty-four districts into which the city is divided. Each district will be bid upon separately for a lump sum. In other words, John smith will bid to sprinkle District No. — during $1½ months for — dollars. The man bidding lowest on any particular district will be given the conclusion of her annual address, was presented with a large bunch of roses was presented with a Fine linen unlaundered shirts, 38c; 25c embroidered linen handkerchiets, 5c; gold headin the plans of a commission, but of ed umbrellas, 55c; $1.25 P. K. shirts, 55c; flannelette shirts, 29c. All-wool natural undera regular and well defined system of boule-vards in and around the park, under such conditions as would give it more revenue. To fix the thing properly we would have to get some State legislation on it, but I think that could be all arranged." Mr. Richard Klemm. the Park Commissioner, said: "There are a great many things to be considered concerning any and all of the future attrangements for Forest Park as it is changing rapidly will from now require a great deal more attention than it has heretofore received more transfer of the said and the said ceived; next year beside what men we can ge from the Police Department we will need a large number of watchmed and such to look after the people. Now the only point to consider seriously is, what is the best way to raise the most money, with Forest Park to-day the all-important item is money, and lots of it. If, upon careful investigation, it is found that under a commission more money can be raised than in any other way, well and good. If it is found that the boulevard system will give the greatest returns, why, adopt that.

The Cates Avenue Controversy. The Cates avenue controversy, which was started before the Board of Public Improve ments last Tuesday, is at a standstill as far as

The question, as has been already stated, is whether or no Cates avenue, from Union to Belt avenues, shall be legally opened or not. The Sisters of the Visitation and a very few

The Sisters of the Visitation and a very few property owners in the city do not want it opened. The directors of the Masonic Home and a large number of property owners in the vicinity do want it opened.

The Masonic Home is in favor of the opening because it is thought that an east and west street is needed somewhere in the neighborhood and if it is not cut through at Cates a vance it was the many a little farther. neighborhood and if it is not cut through at Cates avenue it may be put a little further south and cut through the Masonic Home property instead of through the Visitation tract. The Visitation opposition is due simply to the fact that the convent site will be ruined if Cates avenue is cut through. The Masonic Home interest, too, is secondary to that of the Visitation Convent, as the Masonic tract is a hundred feet south of the line of the proposed street. It is expected that the board committee will have a report ready by to-morrow.

Perhaps there has been no necessity for their so doing as yet; perhaps a financial inability has been a hindering cause.

Whatever has been the reason, we are going to make it a lucky thing that you have not bought. We propose to give clothing buyers the advantage of some reductions we are making, which will more than compensate for the inconvenience they have experienced in doing without until now. We want you to bear in mind, too, that in cutting prices we are not striking down any fictitious prices or lowering imaginary values. Every dollar or cent reduction we make is from our regular every-day retail values-better than which no clothiers in this or any other city have ever given. The men boxed with two-ounce gloves, an unusually smail glove for a public show. Immediately after they shook hands Campbell stepped back, and bang! bang! went one fist after the other on Dacey's right cheek. The blows landed like lightning, and cut the New Yorker's cheek a little under the eye, besides raising something of a cushion. Dacey was taken by surprise, not having expected to take part in more than an ordinary boxing bout, although the size of the gloves should have warned him that something unusual was up.

He rallied in an instant, however, and it could be seen that he realized that he was up against something. He measured the situation correctly and, promptly proceeded to hammer the handsome Campbell, who ranks as a boxer with any instructor in the country. Dacey couldn't reach his face, as Campbell was too tall, but he got in some of the wickedest kind of punches on the Philadelphian's stomach and continued fast work on Campbell's wind throughout the four rounds without receiving another blow that hur. According to the Sum reporter's informant if the bout had lasted another round Campbell would have had to give up or be knocked out.

"How do you know Germany is indebted to the Fisher family?" was asked.

"It has been handed down to us, but no one has taken any action until now."

"What was the original amount loaned and what was it used for?"

"I do not care to say. We may make all things public after awhile and tell the whole of the interesting story, but not now. We think we have conclusive evidence to prove our claim and are about to present the case to the German Government."
